Day 3 – Funchal / Porto Moniz / Funchal - 31/12

Breakfast at the Hotel and departure to Full Day Tour by to Porto Moniz. On this tour, get ready to be amazed by panoramic views of madeira's west coast. First, we will visit the typical fishing village of the Chamber of Lobos, well known for fishing for black cablefish and typical Poncha drink. It is a picturesque place with colorful fishing boats, these charming views inspired Winston Churchill to paint his famous photos of the region. On the way to the small town of Ribeira Brava, we will stop at Cabo Girão, one of the highest sea cliffs in Europe, 580m away. Be brave and walk along the glass floor skywalk extending over the top of the cliff and admire the incredible views. The trip will continue to Encumeada - this view offers a superb view on both sides of the island (north and south) can be seen at the same time (weather permitting). On the way to Porto Moniz we will take the road along Paulo da Serra - the largest and most extensive plateau of the island at 1400m above the sea - enjoy the green landscape of mountains and valleys. Next stop in Porto Moniz – located in the north of the island, a city known for its natural pools formed from Vulcanrocks. Return to Funchal in the late afternoon, evening dinner of New Year's Eve with drinks.

Day 4 – Funchal - 01/01/2022

Stay at the hotel on a bed and breakfast basis. Live day for activities to personal taste, taking advantage of the mild temperatures that are felt every year on this Island and visiting the center that on this day has a very special animation.

Day 5 – 03/01/2021 – Funchal

Breakfast at the hotel and departure for a full-day tour. On this tour, we will explore the east side of Madeira Island, the first visit will be the traditional village of Camacha, famous for its beautiful wicker works, and we stop to take a look, visit the factory where you can see artisans working and buying items from a vast collection available. Next, we will take a scenic tour of the Laurissilva forest to Poiso and Pico do Areeiro - It is the third highest peak in Madeira, 1818m above sea level. As we climb the mountain, there are spectacular views, weather permitting, you'll see cotton clouds in the valleys. The journey will continue along the enchanted Laurissilva forest to Ribeiro Frio, Natural Park, where you can take a look around the trout hatchery. On the way to Santana, admire the vegetation of the fields and local farmers. In Santana, beautiful village in the north of the island, you can visit the famous small triangular thatched houses. Driving to the north coast, we will stop in Portela - lookout 670m from where you can see the impressive rock formation of Penha D'Água. Then we will head towards Ponta de São Lourenço, enjoy the breathtaking landscape and wild landscape with amazing rock formations from the easternmost point of the island. Before returning to Funchal, we will pass through Machico, the first place where Zarco and Tristan Vaz Teixeira landed when Madeira was discovered. I return to Funchal in the late afternoon.
